Generation No. 1

1. John<sup>2</sup> Jones (Unknown<sup>1</sup>)<sup>1,2,3,4</sup> was born Abt. 1750 in Wales, and died 1811 in Smithland, Livingston Co., KY<sup>5</sup>. He married Sarah Jolly<sup>6,7</sup> Abt. 1769 in SC, daughter of Joseph Jolly and Spouse Unknown. She was born 1755 in SC, and died September 04, 1856 in Smithland, Livingston Co., KY.

Notes for John Jones:

As told to me by my 1st cousin, Billy Jones, (Oral Family History) John Jones originally came from Wales but was serving in the Military in England when England sent troops into Ireland. He was so lenient with them, there were charges against him, so he deserted and fled to America. Ironically, shortly after his arrival into this country, the Revolutionary War started. He was living in Charleston, SC. Since he did not want to be captured by the English and returned to England for trial for deserting, he hid out in the mountains of SC and is reported to have died there. There is conflicting information concerning when and where John Jones died. Another source lists the place of death as Livingston Co., KY and the year as 1811. I have not been able to verify which is correct at this time, but I tend to agree with the 1811 date and Livingston Co., KY as the place of death. Sarah Sally was buried in Livingston Co., KY in 1856. At the time he came to America, he traveled with two brothers, Joseph and Wilson Jones.

It has been said that he and his family came to Kentucky with Daniel Boone. According to history, the group of five families which Daniel Boone led to Kentucky on the "Wilderness Trail" was in 1784 and sources indicate John's son, Samuel B. Jones, was born in Laurens Co., SC in 1799. This needs to be checked. From oral family history I understand the story is that John Jones and William Andrew Jones made the trip to KY with Daniel Boone (not sure of the year) but the family did not move until they returned. Rebecca stayed in SC while they made this trip. Also, his last three children were not even born at that time and they show as being born in Laurens Co., SC. It appears to me the earliest they could have migrated to KY was after 1800. Other family history says they only stayed in KY for one year then moved on to TN but we now know at least part of the family stayed in KY much longer than that and the members of the family who left, migrated to Tuscaloosa, AL. They show up on Livingston Co., KY tax lists as early as 1807 but by 1810 there is only an Andrew Jones (Do not know if this was William Andrew or Andrew Jolly) but Andrew Jones is listed through 1811. Jolly Jones, Rhoda Jones McElroy and Rebecca Jones Dorrah stayed in AL but the rest of the family migrated on to Hardeman Co., TN.

There is an indenture for an Andrew Jones, Abbeyville Co., SC (next to Laurens Co., SC) April 26, 1785, No. 530, Book C:9 pounds, 11 shillings, 5 pence duty as private under Capt. Joseph Calhouns 1779 & 1783: (This information is not verified as being our John (Andrew) Jones but could be.) William Andrew Jones would only have been 5 years old at the time.

Several sources show William Andrew Jones as the correct name. Bobbie McLane shows it as just Andrew Jones and the pages of John A. Jones bible show it as Andrew Jones and someone has added Sr. beside it. This could mean either Andrew Jolly Jones, Sr. or Andrew William Jones, Sr. I am leaving as William Andrew Jones at present but am still researching to verify which is correct if possible.

Familytreemaker.genealogy.com/"The Abridged Compendium of American Genealogy", Page 604:

The following is a direct quote from John N. Jones letter dated September 14, 1921, giving family history: Grandfather was in several Indian fights with Daniel Boone. He lived there (in Livingston Co., KY) a few years (till 1811) then moved to AL and settled where the town of Tuscaloosa is now, and cleared out a farm there. There were eight families of them. It was forty miles to the nearest white settlement. He fought the Indians all up and down the Black Warrior River and was Captain of the Militia. He then moved to West Tenn., then to Mississippi (1831), and died there before the Chickasaw Indians left there (1837).

Note: John N. Jones was 86 years old when he wrote the above letter and the dates seem to be a little off. William Andrew Jones actually died in 1840 in Pontotoc Co., MS, however, the Indians including the Choctaws were moved out as early as 1830 and continued through 1837 or possibly later. All of the Jones family should have been on the Ward rolls as early as 1830-1831 but I have been unable to locate a copy of the original rolls at this time. This is still an ongoing search. I understand from several sources there were two rolls. One which was official and one unofficial that Ward compiled. Rebecca was 1/2 Choctaw so all of the children would have been listed as Choctaw by blood and given land. The Dawes rolls were not compiled until around 1893-1900 so most of the people from the Mississippi Reservation were dead by then. That is why the descendants have had such a hard time proving their Indian heritage.

Note: I have been unable to verify Rebecca Box was 1/2 Choctaw Indian. Every application I checked out was rejected. However, we know she was awarded land in Pontotoc Co., MS at the Choctaw Reservation and lived there for some time. I am still searching for documented proof of her Indian blood.

In August of 2001, the (Great) Grandchildren, and other Descendants of Rebecca Box Jones placed a marker on her grave in Shiloh Cemetery, Pike Co., AR. the inscription read as follows:

"In Memory

Rebecca Box Jones"

1782 - 1862

Wife of

William Andrew Jones

1780 - 1840

Placed here by Descendants in 2001

Billy Ray Jones, her Great Great Great Grandson, did extensive research to determine the location of Rebecca's unmarked grave. After determining the location he made arrangements to have the marker placed. Many, many of her other Great Grandchildren made contributions to finance this stone and to maintain the graveyard in which it was placed. There were too many descendants who contributed to this worthy cause to name them all but please know your thoughtfulness was appreciated. We can now feel pride in knowing our "Special Grandmother" has a marked grave.

Notes for John Andrew Jones:

I have three different sources as place of birth, showing Laurens Co., SC, Hardeman Co., TN and Livingston Co., KY as his birth place. I have not verified which is correct at this time but I feel the place should be Livingston Co., KY.

From the Census and Tax Records for John A. Jones it would seem his family moved to Livingston Co., KY around 1800 and John A. Jones was born there. They stayed in this area from around 1800 to 1810 or 1811.

The family moved from Livingston Co., KY to Tuscaloosa, AL. Several of the family, Jolly Jones, Rhoda Jones McElroy and Rebecca Jones Dorrah and their families stayed in AL.

The rest of the family moved to Hardeman Co., TN and were there until at least 1836.

They then migrated to Pontotoc Co., MS and stayed there for the period between 1836-1848. Oral family history tells us the different families received land from the Government because of Rebecca being 1/2 Choctaw Indian. They stayed until the trouble when Willis killed an Indian and the family had to flee.

It seems there were at least two groups who arrived in AR at different times. From my records I have determined John A. Jones did not move to AR until around 1848. This was two years before he died.

He had returned to MS (on business or to visit) and was killed on his way back to AR. It is unknown how he was killed or the exact location of his grave. Another source states he was murdered but I have not verified that fact at this time. If anyone knows the story I would appreciate hearing from you. I have not been able to locate his grave or find out the exact cause of death.

John A. Jones youngest child, Benjamin Franklin Jones, was only 10 months old when his father died.

Notes for Rebecca Jones:
 Place of birth on most sources show Laurens Co., SC. The census of 1850 for Pontotoc Co., MS shows her with Davis Daniel in dwelling #1647 and lists her place of birth as AL. I tend to agree with this AL listing because according to information I have located John Jones and his family had already left SC when Rebecca would have been born.

Notes for Major Willis Cornelius Jones:

War Department letter, Adjutant General's Office;Widow's Declaration for Pension;Case #345257;Research by Ceilia Stratton;furnished by Billy R. Jones:

AR State Senator represented Pike, Polk and Montgomery Counties:1860-1862

Willis Jones was a Major in the 4th U.S. Calvary Regiment-Civil War; Willis became ill while still in the Service and died in Little Rock, Pulaski Co., AR on April 30, 1865:

While living on the Mississippi Choctaw Indian Reservation an Indian tried to stab Willis and Willis shot and killed him. The entire family then had to leave their homes and flee to AR. The Indians later burned the home of Robert Jones in retaliation. (Reference Case #MCR 6755). Some sources state this happened in 1831 but this is not verified. Robert Jones did not move to Elm Community in AR until 1848. Rebecca is shown living next to Willis in Pontotoc Co., MS in 1850. The ages of Willis and Mary differ from other research and I have not verified which is correct as yet. Rebecca later moved to AR and is buried in Shiloh Cemetery, Star of the West, AR.

Robert Jones and Louisa Champion were married Abt. 1854 and then moved to TX. First two children, John and Mary were born there. They moved back to AR before third child, George Anderson was born.

(Information from Family Bible Record)
During the Civil War, Robert lived in Amity, Clark Co., AR. He joined a posse which was searching for an escaped slave. Each person had a post to stay at but Robert moved from his post and another member of the posse thought he was the escaped slave so shot and killed him. After his death, Louisa took the children and they traveled alone by wagon to San Augustine, San Augustine Co., TX to be near her family. The war was going on during this time and they could sometimes hear the cannon as they traveled.

Carver: Coltharp Printing & Publishing:

According to the above source Joseph was ambushed and killed a few miles from his home. He had slipped into the area to try to check on his family who were ill with smallpox. He had served some time in the Confederate Army but not willingly and had gone over to the Union side with his brother John N. Jones.

According to John N. Jones, Joe was not officially a union soldier but would go on scouts with his brother when he went. The ambushers were known to him as they had all lived in the same area before the war.

Notes for Samuel Benton Jones:

Note:The following is a direct quote from correspondence received from <ruth913@attbi.com> on 03/07/02:
"Samuel Benton Jones was tall, about 6'1" with black hair and brown eyes. He really looked Indian with his high cheek bones and beak nose. He was a farmer, but mostly he loved coon hunting and fishing. He was very much against education. Said it would destroy the world. He mellowed out in his old age, but as a young man, he was meaner than a junk yard dog. He did not lie maliciously, but he liked to stretch the truth to make a good story.

Especially if he was talking about hunting or fishing. He loved my grandmother and never looked at another woman. Money was almost non existent with him, but if he went to town and had a penny in his pocket, he always brought her a stick of peppermint candy. He died in 1953. He went to the funeral home and picked out a burial plot for him and my grandmother. He told them he would be back in a few days, went home and died. They lived at Smithville, Mc Curtain Co., OK when he died. He is buried in Broken Bow, Mc Curtain Co., OK."
